Billy Goss--Head Coach

Coach Goss was named as the head baseball coach at Tech in the fall of 1998. In his first two seasons at Tech, Billy Goss guided the Wonder Boys to back-to-back 20-win seasons. In 2001, Goss took it up a notch, leading Tech to a 32-20 overall record and an appearance in the championship round of the Gulf South Conference Tournament. The Wonder Boys' run in the GSC Tournament was Tech's best-ever showing in the event, reaffirming the Wonder Boys' position as one of the top baseball programs in the conference. Tech made it back to the postseason in 2004, finishing with a 31-23 overall record and an appearance in the GSC Tournament at USA Stadium in Millington, Tenn. In 2005, Goss guided the Wonder Boys to a 28-22 record and a second place finish in the Gulf South Conference and earned a trip to the GSC conference tournament.

John-Paul Davis—Hitting Coach

Coach Davis joined the Arkansas Tech coaching staff in the fall of 2006 after a successful stint in professional baseball. Coach Davis played in the Tampa Bay Devil Rays and St. Louis Cardinals organizations making it as high as Double-A and spending the past year in the United League as a member of the Amarillo Dillas. Before entering the professional ranks, Coach Davis was a member of the University of Texas –Arlington (1998-2000) and Arkansas Tech University (2001) baseball programs. He currently holds the single season records in home runs, RBIs, and slugging percentage at Arkansas Tech University.

Wes McCrotty—Pitching Coach

McCrotty joined the coaching staff of Arkansas Tech in the summer of 2005 and is in his second stint at Tech. During the 2004-2005 season, he was at the University of Arkansas working with Coach Jom and the pitching staff. After a four-year career at the University of Arkansas he was drafted by the Florida Marlins.. He spent two years with the Florida Marlins and one year with the Rockford Riverhawks as a pitcher.
