Little Techster Day Jan. 31 at Tucker

Arkansas Tech University has designated Saturday, Jan. 31, as Little Techster Kids Klub Day for its Gulf South Conference basketball doubleheader against the Christian Brothers University Lady Buccaneers and Buccaneers at Tucker Coliseum.

Members of the Little Techster Kids Klub will be the guests of honor as the Golden Suns take on the CBU Lady Buccaneers at 4 p.m. and the Wonder Boys host the defending Gulf South Conference champion CBU Buccaneers at 6 p.m.

Admission will be free with a Little Techster membership card.

"We hope that all Little Techsters will come out to Tucker Coliseum and cheer on the Golden Suns and the Wonder Boys on Jan. 31," said Kelly Davis, director of corporate and athletic relations. "We also encourage any member who has not picked up his or her official 2008-09 Little Techster Kids Klub football to pick it up at the basketball games that day."

For more information, call (479) 968-0337.

NGWS Day Also Set for Jan. 31

Arkansas Tech University will celebrate National Girls and Women in Sports Day with a sports clinic for all girls age 12 and under on Saturday, Jan. 31.

The clinic will begin at 2 p.m. inside the Hull Physical Education Building. There will be a variety of stations where girls will receive instruction from members of the Arkansas Tech coaching staff and the Tech Physical Education Department.

All girls attending the clinic will receive free admission to the Arkansas Tech basketball doubleheader at 4 p.m. that afternoon.

For more information, call (479) 964-0513.
